f CAPPS TAVERN & EATERY

THE STORY

The Tavern was built in 1917 by the Modern Woodmen of America, serving as a venue for dancing, social affairs, and banquets. Liberty Hall was its grand name! In 1939, the Celizics purchased the building and renamed it "Leroy Tavern."

Together, they upheld the rich tradition of a family operation until 1964. It wasn't until 1994, just weeks before the building was to be condemned, that the "Tavern" found new owners. Matt Krupka and Tim Toman took over, changing the name to Capps Tavern & Eatery and initiating what would become its most remarkable transformation to date.

Since 1917, this establishment has come a long way and proudly reflects the love and investment bestowed upon it by various owners. Today, it is Leroy's destination of choice for great food, family, and fun—a credit largely due to Tim's wife, Graziella Toman. She is truly the face and breath of fresh air that customers have come to love and return to time and time again.

See for yourself why Capps Tavern & Eatery is the place where tradition lives on.
